POLICY DISCLOSURE NOTICE - TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002

On December 26, 2007, the President of the United States signed into law amendments to the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act"), which, among other things, extend the Act and expand its scope. The Act establishes a program under which the Federal Government may partially reimburse "Insured Losses" (as defined in the Act) caused by "acts of terrorism". An "act of terrorism" is defined in Section 102(I) of the Act to mean any act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury - in concurrence with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General of the United States - to be an act of terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States Mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

The Federal Government's share of compensation for Insured Losses is 85% of the amount of Insured Losses in excess of each Insurer's statutorily established deductible, subject to the "Program Trigger", (as defined in the Act). In no event, however, will the Federal Government or any Insurer be required to pay any portion of the amount of aggregate Insured Losses occurring in any one year that exceeds $100,000,000,000, provided that such Insurer has met its deductible. If aggregate Insured Losses exceed $100,000,000,000 in any one year, your coverage may therefore be reduced.

Please note that no separate additional premium charge has been made for the terrorism coverage required by the Act. The premium charge that is allocable to such coverage is inseparable from and imbedded in your overall premium, and does not include any charge for the portion of losses covered by the Federal Government under the Act. The charge is no more than one percent of your premium.

V. GENERAL CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS

A. LIMIT OF LIABILITY AND RETENTION

- 1) The Insurer shall pay Loss in excess of the applicable Retention set forth in Item 4 of the Declarations up to the maximum aggregate Limit of Liability set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations for the Policy Period set forth in Item 2 of the Declarations.

- 2) Losses based upon or arising out of the same Wrongful Act or Related Wrongful Acts of one or more of the Insureds shall be considered a single Loss incurred as a result of a single Claim, which Claim shall be deemed to have been made on the date the first Claim for such Wrongful Act or for one or more of such Related Wrongful Acts is made against any of the Insureds, whether such date is before or after the Policy Inception Date. The applicable Retention shall apply only once to each such single Claim.
- 3) If the Insured Organization is permitted or required by common or statutory law to ultimately indemnify the Insured Persons for any Loss, or to advance Defense Costs on their behalf, and does not in fact do so other than for reasons of Financial Insolvency, then any payment of such Loss or any advancement of such Defense Costs by the Insurer shall not be subject to any Retention amount. In that event, the Insured Organization shall reimburse and hold harmless the Insurer for such Loss up to the Retention amount set forth in Item 4(b) of the Declarations. For purposes of this Section V(A), the resolutions of the Insured Organization shall be deemed to provide indemnification for Loss to the fullest extent permitted by common or statutory law.
- 4) If Loss resulting from a Claim is subject in part to no Retention and in part to the Retention for Indemnified Loss, the Retention set forth in Item 4(b) of the Declarations shall be applied only to that part of the Loss which is Indemnified Loss.
- 5) With respect to any Claim, other than a Claim for Wrongful Employment Practices, the applicable Retention shall apply only to Defense Costs, not to any settlement, judgment or other damage.
- 6) If a Claim, other than a Claim for Wrongful Employment Practices, is fully and finally resolved with prejudice with respect to all Insureds without any Insured becoming legally obligated to pay any judgment, settlement or damages (other than Defense Costs) as the result of such Claim, no Retention shall apply with respect to such Defense Costs.
- 7) Defense Costs shall be part of and not in addition to the maximum aggregate Limit of Liability set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations, and Defense Costs shall reduce the maximum aggregate Limit of Liability.
- 8) The amount set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations shall be the maximum aggregate Limit of Liability of the Insurer under the Policy for the Policy Period for all Loss resulting from all Claims, regardless of the time of payment by the Insurer.

B. NOTICE

- 1) If during the Policy Period or Discovery Period, if purchased, any Claim is first made against any Insured, the Insureds as a condition precedent to their right to be reimbursed under this Policy, shall give to the Insurer written notice of any such Claim as soon as practicable but in no event later than thirty (30) days after the expiration date of the Policy or the Discovery Period (if applicable). The Insured shall give the Insurer such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require.
- 2) If during the Policy Period the Insureds shall become aware of any Wrongful Act which may subsequently give rise to a Claim and shall give written notice to the Insurer as soon as practicable during the Policy Period or Discovery Period (if applicable), then any Claim subsequently made against the Insureds arising out of such Wrongful Act shall be deemed to have been made during the Policy Period. Such notice must articulate the full particulars as to the nature of the potential Claim, the date of the Wrongful Act, the persons involved and the reasons for anticipating a Claim.

- 3). Notice to the Insurer hereunder shall be addressed as stated in Item 8 of the Declarations. Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, all notices under this Policy shall be in writing and given by mail, prepaid express courier or facsimile properly addressed and shall be effective upon receipt.

Upon the Insurer's receipt from the Insureds of notice of such merger, consolidation or acquisition, the Insurer shall promptly provide to the Parent Organization alternative quotations for a three-year and six-year extension of coverage (or any lesser periods which the Insureds may request) with respect to Claims for such prior Wrongful Acts. Any coverage extension pursuant to such quotations shall be conditioned upon: (1) the Insureds giving to the Insurer written notice during the Policy Period of their desire to elect such extended coverage, (2) any premium paid or to be paid under this Policy being deemed fully earned upon inception of such coverage extension, (3) payment during the Policy Period by the Insureds of any additional premium required by the Insurer, and (4) the Insureds accepting any additional terms and conditions required by the Insurer.

The purchase of any such coverage extension shall not increase or reinstate the maximum aggregate Limit of Liability set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations.

The Parent Organization shall give written notice of such merger, consolidation or acquisition to the Insurer as soon as practicable together with such information as the Insurer may require.

If any payment is made under this Policy, the Insurer shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the Insureds' rights of recovery, including without limitation the Insured Persons' rights to indemnification or advancement from the Insured Organization. The Insureds shall execute all papers required and do everything necessary to secure such rights and to enable the Insurer to bring suit in their name.

- 2) By acceptance of this Policy, the Insureds grant the exclusive power and authority to cancel this Policy on their behalf to the Parent Organization, which may cancel this Policy by mailing to the Insurer written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. The mailing of such notice shall be sufficient notice, and the effective date of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the Policy Termination Date.
- 3) If this Policy is cancelled pursuant to Section V(F)(2), the earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table and procedure. If this Policy is cancelled pursuant to Section V(F)(1), the earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Premium adjustment may be made either at the time cancellation is effective or as soon as practicable after cancellation becomes effective, but payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

G. NON-RENEWAL

The Insurer may elect to non-renew this Policy only if it gives written notice of such non-renewal to the Parent Organization at least forty-five (45) days prior to the Policy Termination Date.

H. ACTION AGAINST INSURER

No action shall lie against the Insurer unless, as a condition precedent thereto, there shall have been full compliance by the Insureds with all of the terms of this Policy; nor shall any such action lie until the amount of the Insured's obligation to pay shall have been finally determined either by judgment against the Insured after actual trial or by written agreement of the Insured, the claimant and the Insurer. No person or organization shall have any right under this Policy to join the Insurer as a party to any action against the Insureds to determine the Insurer's liability, nor shall the Insurer be impleaded by the Insureds or their legal representatives.
